ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival

Following arrival at Keflavik Airport in Iceland, transfer by Flybus to your accommodation in Reykjavik.

Day 2: Reykjavik – Snaefellsness Peninsula

Pick up your rental vehicle this morning and head north to Borgarfjordur and Hraunfossar and view a waterfall that emerges from under a lava flow to cascade into a glacial river. Visit nearby Reykholt and Iceland's largest hot spring Deildartunguhver. Spend two nights in Stykkisholmur.

Day 3: Snaefellsness Peninsula

Explore the scenic Snaefellsnes Peninsula, walking among the fantastic coastal formations at Arnarstapi and visiting the fjords and fishing villages along its north side. With good weather you may have views of the mystical cone shaped volcano and Snaefellsjokull icecap. In summer, take an optional cruise on Breidafjordur Bay and seek out some of the amazing bird colonies on the peninsula.

Day 4: Snaefellsness Peninsula – Akureyri

Head north to charming town of Akureyri on the shores of Eyjafjordur, for an overnight stay. There is a lovely Botanic Garden in the city, a charming church, several museums and art galleries. Take in the many shops and restaurants.

Day 5: Akureyri and Lake Myvatn area

Visit beautiful Godafoss and then head for Myvatn and explore its strange volcanic features. Perhaps take a dip in the beautiful Myvatn Nature Baths, visit the Cow Shed café or hike at otherworldly Dimmuborgir. Spend two nights in this interesting area.

Day 6: Akureyri and Husavik area

Drive to Asbyrgi Gorge, Jokulsa Canyon and Dettifoss, Europe's most powerful waterfall. Take an optional whale watching cruise at Husavik.

Day 7: East Fjords

Spend a leisurely day heading east crossing the highland desert and explore the beautiful east fjords. Spend the night in Egilsstadir or Seydisfjordur.

Day 8: East Fjords – Hofn

Perhaps head off to Mjoifjordur, considered by many to be the most beautiful of the stunning East Fjords, before continuing south through yet more striking scenery. Overnight in Hofn, a fishing port at the foot of Europe's largest icecap, Vatnajokull. You can also take an optional 4X4 tour on the glacier and maybe add on a snowmobile ride.

Day 9: Skaftafell area

One eye-catching view follows another on the journey around the base of the icecap, Vatnajokull in sight of its many breathtaking glaciers. One has receded, forming a huge lagoon, where icebergs lie adrift this is Jokulsarlon. In summer, take a boat trip amongst the icebergs and head over to the beach and watch as they drift out to sea. Stay two nights near Skaftafell.

Day 10: Skaftafell area

Explore Skaftafell National Park – wonderful views, glaciers and waterfalls including the stunning Svartifoss with its impressive basalt columns.

Day 11: Selfoss area

Travel along the south coast past the cliffs of Dyrholaey, Skogarfoss and its Folk Museum. Don't miss the walk behind Seljalandsfoss and look out through its curtain of cascading water. Two nights in the Selfoss area.

Day 12: Golden Circle

Enjoy the three great attractions of the "Golden Circle" the geothermal area at Geysir, the two-tiered waterfall at Gullfoss and historic Thingvellir, Iceland's third national park.

Day 13: Golden Circle – Reykjavik

Return to Reykjavik today and drop off your rental vehicle. The day is free to explore Iceland's fascinating capital city, Reykjavik. Shop famous Laugavegur Street and visit several of the museums and art galleries. Visit Hallgrimskirkja church that towers over the city. Take a great photo of the city from the top of the church tower or from the observation deck at the Perlan! Enjoy dinner at one of the many incredible restaurants and take in the pure energy of Reykjavik nightlife.

Day 14: Farewell to Iceland

Check out of your accommodation and join the transfer to the Blue Lagoon and Keflavik Airport. Soak in the geothermal mineral waters of the famous Blue Lagoon, a perfect solution for what to do on your last day in Reykjavik and a great way to go home feeling relaxed and revitalized. Onward transfer to the airport for your flight home.
