You will discover the University of Seville, founded in 1505; the Old Tobacco Factory, an 18th-century stone building once housing the only tobacco factory in Europe; and the Plaza de España, built in 1928 for the Ibero-American Exposition of 1929. After lunch, you will make your way through the labyrinth of narrow streets in the Old Jewish Quarter and visit the biggest Gothic Cathedral in the world, the Cathedral of Seville. From here you can admire the Liberdade Avenue, the Eden Theatre (one of the best examples of Portuguese Art Deco) and the eighteenth century Foz Palace. Wander through the elegant Chiado district, with its old cafes, boutiques, theaters and bookstores. This aristocratic neighbourhood is one of the most interesting pedestrian areas of Lisbon. Continue to the oldest district of Lisbon, Alfama, the cradle of fado, the musical genre characteristic of Portugal. Learn about the history of fado at the Fado Museum and at some of the hidden fado restaurants in the area. You'll enjoy a delicious dinner accompanied by a Fado show before returning to your hotel on your own.

Day 14: Obidos - Alcobaça - Fatima

Enjoy breakfast at your hotel before heading out on a full-day excursion north of Lisbon. In this area you'll travel to a bygone era, where small towns offer relaxing walks and historical religious monuments dot the landscape. The first stop is Obidos, a fortified village with whitewashed houses, narrow streets and an unmistakable medieval atmosphere. You'll have free time here to wander through cobbled alleys, lined with colourful houses and Gothic arches overhead. Relax in a cafe over a glass of the traditional liqueur, Ginja, or visit one of the many wine shops.

Continue on to Alcobaça to visit the famous Monastery of Santa Maria d'Alcobaça, declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and the largest Gothic church in Portugal.

The last visit of the day will be to Fatima, in its day a quiet, rural village that became an important pilgrimage destination in 1917 after three shepherd boys reported that they'd seen an apparition of the Virgin Mary, also known as Our Lady of Fatima (Nossa Senhora de Fatima). Here you'll have free time should you wish to visit the Sanctuary of Fatima, a basilica that honours the apparition and attracts millions of Catholic pilgrims every year, who travel to pay their respects to the sanctuary. Or, simply stroll around the town, do some shopping or people watch as you relax at a cafe and watch the world go by
