Incentive Travel

Incentive travel is the best way to reward your employees for their commitment to your company and motivate them for future success and foster teamwork. Incentive travel arrangements include planning all of the trip details. We will do a site-inspection to ensure the destination and accommodations are suitable, custom-design a program for your company, co-ordinate promotion of the trip, facilitate registration of your participants and check that proper documentation is in place for travel to the chosen destination. We will provide a tour escort throughout, including an on-site hospitality desk.

Location information:

Tamarindo is a town and district of the Santa Cruz canton, located on the Nicoya Peninsula on the Northern Pacific coast of Costa Rica in the Province of Guanacaste. The main attractions are surfing and eco-tourism. The beaches in the area are generally clean and recent efforts by the government and local business organizations are proving themselves. Common things to do in Tamarindo are: ATV Tours, Estuary Safari, Horseback Riding, Kayak Tours, Massages, White Water Rafting class or Tubing, Tours, Scuba Diving, Snorkeling, Spa & Beauty, Sport Fishing, Sailing, Sunset Sailing, Surfing Lessons, Tennis Classes, Turtle Nesting Tours and Zip Line / Canopy Tours.

Accommodation:

The Occidental Tamarindo (4-star) hotel, the only All Inclusive in the area (belonging to the Barceló Hotel Group and formerly known as the Barceló Langosta Beach), is located in the northwest of Costa Rica, just over a mile from Tamarindo city center. Located on a stunning beach surrounded by exceptional natural beauty. The biodiversity of this magnificent country at your fingertips. It features 198 rooms that were renovated in 2010 and fully equipped with everything you need to enjoy your stay, whether for business, pleasure, or with your family. In addition, you will enjoy stunning views of the beach and the beautiful sunsets. Recently renovated, the hotel offers a wide range of services, exquisite food and a wide variety of entertainment options. It is ideal for surfing and nature lovers, besides being the perfect place for family vacations or for those who want to spend their honeymoon in paradise.

With the Barceló All Inclusive program, it is possible to do all sorts of activities, with family or friends, and enjoy the hotel's restaurants without having to worry about anything. It has a fabulous spa that offers endless therapeutic and beauty treatments. It is the perfect plan if you wish to completely unwind and enjoy an unforgettable vacation. The Occidental Tamarindo is the perfect blend of relaxation and adventure, luxury and comfort, jungle and sea. A magical place worth discovering.

Climate:

In Liberia the climate is tropical, hot and humid all year round, with a rainy season from May to October, due to the African monsoon, and pretty frequent rains in other months, except in the short dry season that runs from December to February, which is more marked in the north.

Arts and Culture:

Costa Rican Culture, arts, and traditions have evolved from its rich history, with diverse ethnic and native influences. Famous for being the happiest country in the world, the people of Costa Rica are welcoming and friendly, yet sophisticated and proud. The priorities of the country are evident in its progressive social and environmental policies. Education and healthcare for all are fully supported. Costa Rica is a model of eco-stewardship with more than 25% of its territory preserved from development allowing it to conserve its incredible biodiversity for generations to come.

Cuisine:

There are so many delicious dishes that are a must-try when visiting Costa Rica. Traditional Costa Rican food is definitely a blend of comfort food and grandma's home cooking with a flavor-bursting Latin flare. In Costa Rica, family-owned and operated small restaurants are called sodas. Sodas, which there are a countless number of throughout the country, is where you are likely to find some of the best varieties of traditional Costa Rican cuisine.

Shopping:

All along the main street of Tamarindo you will find a large number of boutiques and gift shops. Tamarindo does not have chain retail stores, and the shops are small and personally owned which makes for an eclectic assortment of goods. From custom made bikinis, to Costa Rican puzzle boxes, to used books, to beach toys, you will be able to shop to your hearts desire. Most shops accept dollars, however you are best off exchanging your dollars for colones at a bank to avoid surprises with the exchange rates.

Mexico - Playa del Carmen

Location information:

The Riviera Maya is a 130 kilometre stretch of Caribbean coastline between the resort city of Cancun in the north and the Mayan ruins of Tulum in the south. Other communities and towns that are part of this famous Mexican beach vacation destination include Puerto Morelos, Playa del Carmen, Cozumel Island, Puerto Aventuras, and Akumal. Being a part of the Yucatan Peninsula, the Riviera Maya has more to offer than its beaches. There is a rich history with many cultural influences and a diverse population. This combination has developed a cosmopolitan feel to the area with a focus on food, activities, shopping and of course, the beach life.

Accommodation:

The Ocean Coral & Turquesa Hotel in Riviera Maya is directly on a white-sand beach in Puerto Morelos, approximately 35 km from Playa del Carmen and 18 km from the Cancun airport. A modern spa offers beauty and massage treatments, plus an indoor pool, hot tubs, steam rooms and a gym. There are also 4 outdoor pools. All 591 rooms at the hotel include bathrobes and slippers in room (upon arrival), concierge service, turn-down service, a Resort Credit of US$250 in discount coupons to be used towards the cost of various services and products and a bottle of wine in room upon arrival. There are elevators on site. Ocean Coral & Turquesa boasts theme restaurants, meeting rooms, Despacio Spa Centre, the Dive It! Diving Centre and a wide variety of entertainment and sports. Meals are served in 9 refined restaurants, including Italian, Asian and Caribbean options. There are also poolside snack bars and a lobby cocktail bar.

Climate:

The Riviera Maya, which begins just south of Cancun, enjoys a warm tropical climate year-round. The average Riviera Maya, Mexico temperature is around 27 degrees Celsius (80 degrees Fahrenheit), with seasonal fluctuations of 4 to 6 degrees.

Arts and Culture:

The Riviera Maya is one of the world's top destinations for scuba diving and snorkeling. An expansive coral reef system extending just off the coast is home to a dizzying array of marine life including colorful tropical fish, manta rays, dolphins and whale sharks. Scuba diving and snorkeling in the Riviera Maya are not limited to the ocean. You can also go snorkeling and cave diving in the many cenotes (underground sink holes) that are unique to this Yucatan Peninsula. Adventurous travelers should venture off the beaten path to visit traditional Maya villages where you will witness the traditions and culture of this fascinating region and sample the local cuisine. A few hours inland, the Mayan ruins at Chichen Itza are arguably the best restored and most impressive of the Yucatán Maya archaeological sites. Consider a day trip via ferry from Playa del Carmen to the Caribbean island of Cozumel where you will enjoy world-class scuba diving, snorkeling and aquatic sports, or, simply spend the day relaxing on the beach.

Cuisine:

Most of us are familiar with Mexican food such as tacos, quesadillas, tamales and burritos. but there are many other options. Mexican cuisine relies heavily on corn and chili peppers, but savour the variety of spices, fresh ingredients and delicious, fresh-from-the-sea fish and shellfish used.

Shopping:

In the Riviera Maya, there are plenty of places to hunt out a bargain or two. From cloth paintings to coral jewellery, semi-precious stones to delicate wood carvings, you are bound to return home with lots of little treasures to remind you of your time spent in the Riviera Maya. As well as local markets, however, there are also plenty of shopping malls selling designer and luxury brands to keep the big spenders at bay.

USA - Las Vegas

Las Vegas, where business leaders from around the world meet, think and exchange ideas. It might sound like hype to call Vegas a global crossroads, but it's not hype if you can back it up! And Vegas can certainly do that, hosting thousands of meetings and conventions every year, almost 20,000 in 2017. Their convention center is one of the busiest in the world and sits within 100,000 guest rooms making a meeting or convention of any size easy. As well, many hotels offer excellent meeting and conference rooms and catering to suit your company's needs.

USA - Greater Palm Springs

With more than 300 days of sunshine each year, it's no wonder attendees love meeting in Greater Palm Springs. Renowned for sunny days and moonlit nights, Southern California's oasis, Greater Palm Springs, offers a "chill culture" second to none. Within its nine resort cities - Desert Hot Springs, Palm Springs, Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage, Palm Desert, Indian Wells, La Quinta, Indio and Coachella - companies can choose from a wide array of accommodations including luxurious resorts, trendy hotels and intimate boutique inns and a variety of meeting venues.

USA - San Diego

There's nothing more rewarding than planning a meeting that people want to attend. With legendary weather, beautiful beaches and friendly, laid-back vibe, San Diego is a destination that draws big crowds and big thinking. See what San Diego is all about... San Diego earned a Top 5 spot on the Cvent 2017 Top 50 Meeting Destinations list! This industry-specific ranking is based off of many factors including meeting and event booking activity as well as the number of unique venues in the destination. San Diego continued to hold its place in the Top 5 with new inventory coming online in the coming months. Considering San Diego has significantly less meeting space at its primary convention center compared to other top destinations, it's rewarding to see San Diego rank so highly—in part, due to its diverse offerings of meeting and conference hotels, award-winning convention center, unique regions, and exceptional attractions and third party venues.
