Day 9: Buenos Aires

Buffet breakfast will be served at the hotel's restaurant.

Buenos Aires half day walking tour – Elegant or Aristocratic Recoleta. This is one of Buenos Aires' most elegant districts and at its heart is Alvear Avenue, home to some of the most exclusive buildings, hotels and boutiques in town, including the Four Seasons and its Alzaga Unzué Mansion; the Brazilian Embassy, a building that took almost 20 years to be built and borrowed details from the Palais Fontainebleau in France; the French Embassy, a beautiful example of the Belle Époque style and, of course, the Alvear Palace Hotel. Along its main avenue, guests can drop by the many luxury brand stores that have set up shop.

Stop by Nuestra Señora del Pilar Church and the Recoleta Cemetery, known for its rich architecture and famous characters from Argentine history and society buried there. What makes this cemetery so remarkable is the architectural significance of its monuments and mausoleums as well as the number of historical and artistic celebrities whose remains rest behind its wrought-iron gates.

Meals: B

Day 10: Buenos Aires

Buffet breakfast will be served at the hotel's restaurant.

Explore some of the most recognizable landmarks in the southern part of the Paris of South on a four-hour sightseeing tour. Find out about the history and culture of Buenos Aires, as you take in some of the city's the most significant spots.

Discover the most important square in the country: Plaza de Mayo. The country was founded here in 1580, and today the most important governmental buildings are located on these four streets including Casa Rosada (Government House), Cabildo (City Hall) and Catedral Metropolitana (Metropolitan Cathedral). Government Palace opens to visitors if you're keen to take a look inside. Walk down Defensa Street to reach San Telmo, one of the oldest areas of the city. This neighbourhood maintains a great part of its architectonic patrimony intact: colonial-style houses, cobbled streets and a bustling collection of artists' studios, ethnic restaurants, antique shops and boutiques. Walk through the oldest and narrowest streets of this protected colonial district, with its famous cobbled streets to Plaza Dorrego. This is the heart of 19th-century Buenos Aires, plus this area is home to some fascinating antique shops.

The next stop-off is the picturesque district of La Boca, home to Caminito, perhaps the city's most photographed area thanks to its corrugated iron and brightly-colored houses. This block houses one of the few outdoor museums in the world, where artists exhibit works related to the influence of mainly Italian citizens who arrived at this port at the end of the 19th century. Also stop by at the famous Bombonera stadium, home to legendary football soccer giants Boca Juniors, whose colors of blue and yellow adorn most of the houses and stores in this barrio.

Before returning to your hotel, pass through Puerto Madero and see this regenerated area where redbrick warehouses have been transformed into trendy restaurants and bars.

This evening you will be treated to dinner and a Tango show at El Aljibe.

Located in the heart of San Telmo, El Aljibe show combines both tango and folk. A classic architectural example of Buenos Aires' from a different epoch, this historical and restored conventillo (tenement) instantly sets the mood, taking guests back in time. Its interior, which preserves the building in its purest style, creates the ideal setting for a special cultural experience that includes excellent performers, a tango orchestra, folk performers, tango dancers and singers.

Day 11: Buenos Aires

Buffet breakfast will be served at the hotel's restaurant.

You will be transferred from the hotel to the airport for your flight home. Or you can choose to take one of the two extensions available.
