ITINERARY

Day 1: Departure from Canada

Depart Pearson International Airport

Day 2: Arrive in Isreal

Upon arrival at the Ben Gurion Airport you will be met by your local tour guide and driver. From there you will head to visit the Peres Center in Tel Aviv which focuses on reconciliation talks between Jews and Arabs. Onwards north to Caesarea Maritime to visit the beautifully preserved archeological site of the Roman port city.

After lunch at a local restaurant, you will head to Mt. Carmel to enjoy a beautiful view of the Jezreel Valley, also known as Armageddon Valley, and home to the Muhraka Church; the latter being the site of confrontation between the prophet Elijah, and the priests of Ba'al.

Dinner and overnight at your hotel in Tiberias on the sea of Galilee.

Day 3: Tiberias

After breakfast you will begin a full day of visiting the churches around the lake following the public ministry of our Jesus. Among the sites to be visited will be Capernaum, the Church of Primacy, The Church of Multiplication of Fish and Loaves and the nearby Church of the Mt. of Beatitudes - site of the Sermon on the Mount. In the early afternoon you will be taking a boat ride across the Sea of Galilee.

In the afternoon you will visit the National Park of Beit Shan, home to the biblical city bearing its name, and lead city of the Decapolis with a rich history during the Roman times.

Dinner and overnight at your hotel in Tiberias.

Day 4: Amman

In the morning you will begin the tour by visiting the remains of Sepphoris, home of great importance to Christianity, as it is believed to be the birthplace of Mary, Mother of Jesus, and likewise the refuge of many rabbinical families during the Bar Kohba Revolt.

Onward, you will head north to the city of Nazareth to visit the Basilica of Annunciation, Mary's Well and a Jewish Synagogue where our Lord is believed to have preached.

After lunch you will head south to the Sheikh Hussein Border to cross into Jordan. Along the way you will stop by Cana, an Arab town, home to the Church of Wedding, the site of the first public miracle of Jesus.

Once you have crossed into Jordan and have met with your Jordanian guides, you will head south to the city of Amman.

Dinner and overnight at the Marriot Hotel in Amman.

Day 5: Petra

In the morning, you will start with a quick tour of the city of Amman, known as the city of Philadelphia during Roman times, and capital of the Hashemite Kingdom established by the direct descendants of the Prophet Mohammad.

Onwards, you will head over to tour the ruins of the Decapolis city, Jerash, and its beautiful colonnaded street, oval forum and maximus cardo.

After lunch you will visit the mosaic churches in Madaba, and most notable amongst them, you will view the oldest and largest mosaic map of the Holy Land in detail. From there you will head to Mt. Nebo, presumed resting place of the Prophet Moses, where he saw the Promised Land, from which God had barred him entry. Following a drive along the King's Highway you will reach Petra, and check into your hotel room.

Dinner and overnight at your hotel in Petra.

Option: candle light Petra pre-tour, additional fee

Day 6: Petra

In the morning you will start a full day tour of Petra. Petra was the Nabatean capital and jewel city carved into the stone of the over-laying canyon. You will start with a walk through the winding fissure of the overhead canyon, known as the Siq, and along the path; You will learn about the impressive defensive and water collecting measurements that the Nabateans had invented. Your first hint of the city of Petra will be the peeking Treasury Building, known as the Khaznah, carved from the pink rose walls of the canyon. From there you will continue with a wide tour of the city, its facilities and unique amphitheatre.

Free time in the afternoon to spend at your leisure and desire.

Dinner and overnight at your hotel in Petra.

Day 7: Jerusalem - Bethlehem

In the morning you will drive to the Dead Sea basin on the Jordanian side. Your first stop for the site will be the Lutheran Chapel in Bethany for some religious reflection and adoration, from there you will also visit the baptismal site, before crossing the Allenby Crossing bridge.

Once you have gone back across the border, you will visit the city of Jericho, and view the Mt. of Temptation and the Sycamore Tree. Time dependent, you will be able to visit Hisham's Palace, an Islamic heritage site with some beautifully designed architecture.

Onwards, you will be taken to the city of Jerusalem. Your only stop will be for a panoramic overview of the city of Jerusalem from the Mt. of Olives. From there, across the separation barrier, you will enter the holy city of Bethlehem.

Dinner and overnight at your hotel in Bethlehem.

Day 8: Bethlehem - Hebron - Bethlehem

After breakfast you will drive through the mountains of Bethlehem southward to the city of Hebron to visit the Patriarchs Tomb and the Haram Al Ibrahim; with an importance to both the Jewish and Muslim faiths.

After lunch you will head to Manger Square to visit the Basilica of Nativity, birthplace of Lord Jesus, and from there you will head to the nearby Milk Grotto; the cave was home to the Holy Family, and it is believed that a drop of milk from the Virgin Mary turned the cave into the white colour that it is now.

Onwards, a visit to the Mosque of Bilal bin Rabah across the Basilic of Nativity.

Dinner at a local restaurant and overnight at your hotel in Bethlehem.

Day 9: Bethlehem

After breakfast you will head to Jerusalem and start the tour with a visit to the August Victoria Hospital. During the tour you will be introduced to the mission of the hospital and the challenges facing them in serving the people of the Holy Land.

After lunch you will head over to the nearby site of Pater Noster, and on foot, descend the Mt. of Olives. You will visit the Chapel of Ascension, which happens to have been turned into a mosque during the middle centuries. From there you will visit Pater Noster (where our Lord taught us Our Daily Prayer), Dominus Fleuit (site where Christ wept seeing the fate of Jerusalem) and at the end, reach the Church of All Nations and the Gardens of Gethsemane.

There will be an opportunity for those wishing to head to the Western Wall to observe a Sabbath Service.
