ITINERARY

Day 1 & Day 2: Barcelona, Spain

Explore the elite playgrounds of Europe, from Barcelona's Las Ramblas and architectural masterpieces to Santa Margherita's charm and gateway to Portofino, and the treasures of Florence and Tuscany from Livorno.

Barcelona's seaside beauty, sprawling beaches, eclectic architecture, world-class tapas and Tempranillo are all reasons to fall in love with the city of Gaudí. Indeed, the treasures here are many and diverse, captivating travelers and experts alike. In fact, nine important sites in the city, seven designed by the famed architect himself, have earned the acclaim of UNESCO.

Day 3: Marseille, France

Marseille is France's oldest city and one of the Mediterranean's premier ports.

Day 4: Cannes, France

One of nature's miracles, the Cote d'Azur is blessed with superb natural beauty. This sun-drenched slope stretches some 60 miles westward from the border of the fairy-tale Kingdom of Monaco. And here in glamorous Cannes, where yachts dot the harbor and chic striped sunloungers line the beach, be sure to take some time to explore the designer bars and couture shops of La Croisette.

Day 5: Monte Carlo, Monaco

An ancient principality steeped in rich and colorful history, Monaco was bought from the Genoese in 1309 by the Grimaldis, who still rule as the world's oldest monarchy – presided over today by Prince Albert.

Day 6: Santa Margherita Ligure, Italy

Rivaling Portofino for the attentions of jet-set travelers, this charming cliffside town has grown from a fishing village into a bustling resort, infused with sunshine and the wealth of sybarites in search of the good life. Explore this Riviera playground to discover a pretty collection of cafés and venerable buildings with faded trompe-l'oeil frescoes still adorning their walls.

Day 7: Florence and Pisa (Livorno), Italy

Giotto, Brunelleschi, Botticelli and Michelangelo made their marks of genius here. This cradle of the Renaissance owes its UNESCO status to the overwhelming influence the city and its museums, churches, architecture and artworks have had on Europe and, ultimately, the world. Vestiges of this enlightened period are everywhere today – at the Uffizi gallery, the Palazzos Pitta and Vecchio and throughout the city streets.

Day 8: Rome (Civitavecchia), Italy

Venture through Civitavecchia, noted for its fine seafood and beautiful monuments. Then, travel to the Eternal City of Rome, with more than 2,500 years of history and ancient landmarks that will leave you with memories for a lifetime.
