ITINERARY

Day 1-3: Zagreb

Start your journey in the beautiful city of Zagreb an old city with a young heart. Centuries of history and beautiful architectural sites, but with a playful atmosphere. Here you can wander the wide boulevards by day, and soak up the lively atmosphere after sunset. Get a taste of Croatia, explore its colorful Open Air Market in Dolac, buy your own ingredients and learn how to make delicious Croatian cuisine in a cooking class! Learn about their famous Lipizzaner horses, soak up the vivid Croatian culture, and start your journey in style.

Day 4: Plitvice

Visit the famous Plitvice National Park. This place of breath-taking natural beauty is the oldest and largest Croatian national park, and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Spend a day wandering the pristine lakes and waterfalls with your guide, and connecting with nature.

Day 5-7: Split

On the way to Split, explore ancient Zadar, where you can see Roman and early medieval ruins. See the famous "Sea Organ", an instrument played by the movement of the Adriatic Sea. See authentic Croatian life from centuries gone by at a Dalmatian ethno-village. Visit the ancient city of Stone - Trogir, and medieval Split - the architecture of these cities will take your breath away, and will make you feel like you've stepped straight into the set of Game of Thrones!

Day 8-12: Dubrovnik

On our way to Dubrovnik, we visit Mostar - the majestic city of bridges in Bosnia & Herzegovina. In Dubrovnik, wander Game of Thrones' Kings Landing, the Old City, and even some Star Wars filming locations! Explore the exotic island of Korula, and discover delicious Croatian wines at a tasting session. Meet the locals in an authentic village in the Dubrovnik area, where you can dance to local music and experience true Croatian hospitality.
