ITINERARY

Day 1, November 01: Arrive Swakopmund, Namibia

Arrive Swakopmund, Namibia anytime today. A coastal city, Swakopmund is famous for its unique examples of German colonial architecture. Time permitting, enjoy a stroll on the promenade or a some delicious German-influenced cuisine and maybe a slice of delicious Black Forest cake in Café Anton. Overnight accommodation is included here for the tour group.

Should you wish to arrive a day or two early please let us know and we can extend your hotel reservation and advise you the cost.

Inspired by the huts of the ancient peoples of the Namib, designed, built and engineered by the owners and founders, Desert Hills Lodge is certainly a visual delight. The proprietary designs of the high grass domes leave one in awe as the eye journeys across its curved organic surfaces, without the edges and corners of the buildings of the daily hustle and bustle of cities. Not only do we wish that you enjoy your sleep and cuisine when visiting Desert Hills Lodge, but we want you to go back home invigorated by grand adventure and exclusive experiences. Nature drives to look at the unique fauna and flora adapted to desert life, sun-downers to greet yet another spectacularly full day, Sossuvlei and Sesriem Canyon trips to marvel at the splendors of the Namib, or even just hiking along the mountain trails cut into the mountains by zebras over centuries.

Linking the tents to the main area are teak walkways. A raised pool deck, which also shelters the bar and breakfast 'room', offers evocative views of the much-frequented waterhole in front of camp.
