ITINERARY

Day 1: Dublin - Belfast - Causeway Coast - Portrush

Leaving Dublin, you will head north to Belfast and take part in a short city tour that goes through the city's hopes, dreams and heartaches. You will have time for lunch and exploring in the Titanic Quarter, restored from the time the famous liner was built and launched in 1911. You can visit the Titanic museum, check out the HMS Caroline or take a black cab tour of the city. Leaving Belfast, you will travel through the Antrim Coast and Glens, which is an official Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. Winding along the roads from Ballycastle, you enter the beautiful Giant's Causeway, a geological mystery. Leaving the giant steps behind, you travel on to Portrush, a wonderfully charming fishing village where you will stay for the night.

These small group tours are basic and more casual than many of the other escorted tours. They offer you the choice of paying admission locally to the sites you wish to visit or skipping an attraction that isn't of interest to you. There is the opportunity to have some free time in the evenings to go out for dinner to a cafe or restaurant of your choosing on your own, buy some food at a supermarket or take-out and eat at your accommodation or hang out with other people from your tour. The choice is yours!

Places You'll Explore on this Tour:

Connemara National Park - Stunning vistas and superb wildlife abound within this famously serene park.

Clifden - The "Capital of Connemara", this historically significant site is where the first transatlantic flight landed.

The Sky Road - 11km of heaven, you'll see the Ireland only usually glimpsed on postcards and travel blogs. Visually arresting landscapes offer views that will fill your senses.

The Twelve Bens - The towering peaks of twelve mountains above a rare bog habitat and pristine lakes, this is a dramatic area that always teems with wildlife.

Cong, Lough Corrib - Museum dedicated to "The Quiet Man" and the restored 12th century Cong Abbey.

Galway Town – Stone clad buildings line the winding lanes and medieval walls of this ancient harbour city, all accompanied by the strains of traditional music pouring from cosy pubs.

Day 2: Portrush – Derry – Donegal

After a good night's rest, you will travel back to the 17th century as you head to Derry, the walled city that has beautiful ornate gates, museums, galleries and great markets. From Derry, your journey will take you to County Donegal and then Glenveagh National Park past Mount Errigal, the tallest peak in County Donegal at 751 metres tall. Leaving Glenveagh National Park, you will make your way through the fishing villages of the area with plenty of time for walks, photo ops and immersing yourself in the local culture.

Day 3: Donegal – Westport

After a hearty breakfast, you will continue on your journey south along the coast near Donegal and into the area that is home to the famous poet WB Yeats. From this location, you have beautiful views of Benbulbin Mountain. Your next stop is Carrowmore, where you will have the chance to see the largest collection of megalithic tombs in Ireland. Some of these tombs date all the way back over 6000 years. Travelling west, you will enter an area, called County Mayo, that was ravaged by the Great Potato Famine that occurred between 1845 and 1852. Journeying down the curvy roads, through farmlands and bogs, you will eventually reach the Atlantic coast and Achill Island. Watch as the waves crash over the rugged coastline, and listen to the sounds of the sea. From here, it is a short jaunt to Westport where you will be staying for the next two nights.

Day 4: Explore Connemara

You will be able to explore Westport and Connemara National Park today as it is a free day for you to wander. Let your guides know what your plans are and they will make sure that you take the best route to get as much out of this day as you can. The options are many: visit the amazing house and grounds of Kylemore Abbey, tour Connemara National Park, Clifden, or travel the Sky Road and see the Twelve Bens of Connemara. After a full day of exploring, your taste buds will thank you when you return back to Westport and fill up on local seafood in one of the town's many restaurants.

Day 5: Westport – Galway – Dublin

Leaving Westport, you will continue your Irish adventure through Connemara to arrive in the town of Cong on the shores of Lough Corrib. While here, you can choose between wandering through the exhibits of the local museum dedicated to the movie, "The Quiet Man", or you can visit the restored 12th century Cong Abbey. En route to your final destination, you will travel through the Maam Valley, with mountains towering on either side of you, to Galway City. There, you will be able to dine on fresh, local seafood before you head to Locke's Distillery, the oldest licensed distillery in the country. After you are sufficiently hydrated, you will make your way back to Dublin.
