TOUR NOTES

Specialist and Enthusiast levels of touring:

You may already have noticed that some of our Churchill polar bear programs are categorized as Specialist or Enthusiast. But what do the categories mean? Well, here's the low down.

- Specialist and Enthusiast level tours both offer small group sizes and include a photography or interpretive guide.
- If you want a small group with an interpretive guide, then an Enthusiast level tour would be the best choice.
- The Specialist tours require the biggest budget and focus (pardon the pun) on specific interests such as photography, with an expert guide along.

Confused as to what level of tour best suits your needs? Just ask us and we'll go through the various tour options and dates to find the best fit.
