ITINERARY

Days 1-4

Travel to Canada's vast and beautiful North with our independent Touch of the Arctic programs. Travel in remote communities can be challenging to arrange, so we've done the leg work for you! Benefit from our 37 year presence in the Arctic when you book through us. We can give you first-hand information based on experience, and connect you with the right guides and gear to ensure your Arctic vacation is everything you'd dreamed of. The hardest part? Choosing which Arctic communities to visit!

Our new series offers visitors the opportunity to spend three nights in an Arctic community; enough time to explore the area, learn about the cultures of the region, meet local peoples, view wildlife, and enjoy the relaxing atmosphere of these remote and unique villages. Whatever your reason to travel north, be it for the culture of the Inuit, solitude, clear air, wildlife, spectacular scenery, dramatic hiking or simply curiosity about the austere yet beautiful Arctic, these programs will offer you the chance to explore your arctic dreams.

These trips are designed to be flexible and take the shape that you want them to. Day tours are available on request (not included in the tour fee), and we can structure your activities to meet your interests and enthusiasms.

Accommodation is in the comfortable and welcoming Inns North properties, each owned by the local co-operative. The communities are not used to many tourists, and are not set up to offer a myriad of local activities. They are simply home to a small and tightly-knit group who will be happy to talk to you of their lives, their land and their culture. Life in the north runs at its own pace, and operates on a very different wavelength to the south; which is, of course, a great part of the fascination of these villages. A tolerance of the northern lifestyle will add immeasurably to the enjoyment of your northern expedition!

Cape Dorset

Cape Dorset is situated on Dorset Island, adjacent to Foxe Peninsula at the southwestern tip of Baffin Island. It is world-renowned for the quality of the artwork produced by its visual artists. Blessed with breathtaking arctic landscapes and an amazing abundance of inspiring arctic wildlife, Dorset Island and nearby Mallikjuaq Territorial Park are great places to view, draw and photograph migratory caribou, seabirds, whales, seals and walruses. 'Kinngait' is a popular destination for naturalists and art lovers who come here each year to experience the Inuit culture, to enjoy the treasures of the place and chat with the local artists.

Iqaluit

Iqaluit is the territorial capital of Nunavut, the largest and fastest-growing community in the territory. Formerly known as Frobisher Bay, the modern city of Iqaluit is rich with traditional Inuit culture. It is the home of many Inuit artists, filmmakers and musicians, plus there are arts and culture festivals staged in the spring and summer that bring artists here from across the territory. The friendly people of Iqaluit — the 'Iqalumiut' — love to go out on the land, sea and ice at all times of the year to enjoy a variety of outdoor activities. Iqaluit is located near beautiful parklands that feature a range of landscapes, mountains, rivers, waterfalls and ancient Thule sites to visit.

Naujaat

Naujaat (Repulse Bay) lies on the Arctic Circle, and visitors to this traditional community will be delighted by the wide bay, the wildlife, the hikes and ancient settlements. In the summer there are boat tours to take you out to spend time on the Bay, and visit some traditional camping grounds that lie close to the community. In winter and spring, travel by snowmobile and kamatiq out to the floe edge. The Inuktitut name of this community 'Naujaat' means "seagull nesting place" due to a cliff area nearby where fledgling seagulls are born each June. Its people are the Aivilingmiut ('people of the walrus place'), direct descendants of the ancient Thule people, known for their excellent dog teams and walrus hunting skills. It's a great place for viewing polar bears and for whale watching excursions. It is located close to beautiful Ukkusiksalik National Park, which is only a 15-minute plane ride away. Truly, a wonderful place!
