ITINERARY

Day 1: Winnipeg arrival

Arrive in Winnipeg and transfer to your downtown hotel, your home for the next two nights.

Walk the short distance to the Forks, a National Historic Site. Stroll the river promenade and take in the panoramic views from the Market Tower. Visit the Canadian Museum for Human Rights. Walk along Broadway to the Manitoba Legislative Building and take a tour (the building is full of secret symbols and codes). The choice is yours!

This evening, enjoy dinner at one of our fabulous restaurants. The Keg's original location is on Garry Street, just north of Broadway, and is a popular downtown eatery.

Day 2: Winnipeg

This morning, you might want to head to the Manitoba Museum, home to a comprehensive collection of northern artifacts and the extensive Hudson Bay Company archives. For those travelling north from Winnipeg to Churchill, Nunavut or Northwest Territories, time spent in the museum will add immeasurably to your experience. In the afternoon, there will be time to visit the Winnipeg Art Gallery, and its superb collection of Inuit Art. The evening is again free, but depending on the date of your visit, there may be an opportunity to attend a play at one of the theatres, a ballet or symphony at the concert hall, a concert or sporting event at the Bell MTS Place, a Goldeyes baseball game or a Bomber's football game. Ask us for details on "What's On in Winnipeg" during your visit.

Day 3: Depart Winnipeg

Check out of your hotel this morning. A private transfer is included to the airport for your flight home or north to begin your Arctic experience.
