ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival

Arrive at Keflavik airport and transfer to Reykjavik (not included), with a full day to explore the city. Overnight stay in Reykjavik.

Day 2: Borgarfjörður - Stykkishólmur - Flókalundur

We drive along the scenic coastline of Hvalfjörður Fjord (Whale Fjord), one of the longest and deepest fjords in Iceland. In West Iceland we explore Hraunfoss (Lava Falls) and Barnafoss (Children's Falls) known for their exceptionally beauty and unusual natural phenomena. We stop at Deildartunguhver hot spring, which bubbles out of algae covered boulders at a steamy 97°C (200°F).

In the afternoon we reach Stykkisholmur village and take a lovely ferry ride across the spectacular seascape of Breidafjörður Bay dotted with 3,000 tiny islands. Encircled by mountains and the Snæfellsjökull volcano, the dramatic bay is home to 50 bird species, the rare white-tailed eagle, and gray seals who enjoy lounging about on the small islets.

Overnight stay in Flókalundur area.

Day 3: Rauðisandur - Latrabjarg - Breiðavík/Patreksfjörður

Today we discover unique sights in one of the least visited places in Iceland. We stroll along Raudisandur beach, which shifts in colour from golden to orange and red depending on the daylight. In a setting of black cliffs, Raudisandur shelters a large lagoon where curious seals and Arctic skuas are regular visitors. Afterwards we behold unusual treasures at a quirky folk museum in Hnjótur.

Reaching Latrabjarg, Europe's largest bird cliff and westernmost point, we encounter an amazing wildlife spectacle as the stunning cliffs host a mind-boggling number of sea birds. Safe from Arctic foxes, the birds are fearless, providing plenty of close-up photo opportunities including our playful puffins.

Overnight stay in Breidavik/Patreksfjörður area.

Day 4: Bíldudalur - Ísafjörður

Traveling along the winding coastline of magnificent fjords we reach the vibrant fishing village of Isafjörður where, honorary capital of the Westfjords. Settled in the 1580s, Isafjörður boasts a charming old town centre with some of the finest and most beautifully restored timber buildings in the country. The lively harbour is the town's bustling centre of commerce and provides a glimpse into the daily scene of rural life in this northerly capital.

En route we stop at the spectacular Dynjandi Waterfall which is a collection of seven cascades resembling a tiered wedding cake. We have the opportunity to take a dip in an outdoor thermal hot spring with gorgeous vistas along with a stop to enjoy some Icelandic specialities at Hrafnseyri.

Overnight stay in Isafjordur for the next 2 nights.

Day 5: Ísafjörður

With an early morning boat ride we cross Isafjardardjup, the largest fjord in the Westfjords where steep mountains descend directly into the sea. We go ashore in one of the most remote corners of Europe for a full-day outing in the breathtakingly lush nature.

Situated on a beautiful sandy beach, Hesteyri is an abandoned settlement where the elusive Arctic Fox roams among the colourful wildflowers that grow knee-high. In the evening, our sail home reveals panoramic views of Drangjokull glacier.

Day 6: Hólmavík - Laugar Sælingsdal

We start the day with a visit to the Arctic Fox Center in Sudavik. From Isafjordur town the route provides coastal views of the scenic fjords that were cut into the earth by glaciers during the last Ice Age. En route to Holmavik village we stop to enjoy a local favourite, freshly baked waffles in a quaint café.

Our journey continues through green valleys to Laugar in Saelingsdalur, an area rich in ancient Saga folklore and history. Here we have the opportunity to soak outside in one of the many thermal pools hidden in nature.

Overnight stay in Saelingsdalur area.

Day 7: Búðardalur - Borgarfjörður - Reykjavík

We drive along Iceland's West Coast to the Viking Age house at Eiríksstaðir, the original home of Erik the Red and birthplace of his son Leif Eiríksson who discovered North America. In a turf-covered longhouse we meet modern day Vikings who demonstrate the lifestyle from 1,000 years ago.

We make a tasty stop at the local Erpsstaðir dairy for an introduction to Icelandic farming life and sample freshly made ice cream. In Borgarfjordur we hike along moss-covered lava to the 3,500 year-old Grabrok volcano cone with incredible views of the Glanni waterfall, a suspected home of elves and trolls.

Return to Reykjavik in the late afternoon. Overnight stay in Reykjavik.

Day 8: Departure

The final morning in Reykjavik is free to explore, do some shopping or take an early whale watching tour. You can purchase a standard transfer or upgrade your transfer to include a stop at the famous Blue Lagoon before heading to Keflavik for your return flight home.
